This is one of the most sinfully delicious, most chocolatey, yummiest, super scrumptious, fill the house with deliciousness, making it smell like a hot cocoa factory, desserts we've ever had . . . plus it's super easy to make.

Ingredients:

1. 1 Box of Chocolate Devils Food cake mix – follow box instructions
2. 1 Box of Chocolate Instant Pudding
3. 1 Bag (12 ounces) of semi sweet chocolate chips – we used mini chips in the video, but regular sized chips work better. The mini chips tend to float near the top of the recipe where the full size chips tend to sink into the recipe a little more.

Directions:

Mix all ingredients following the box instructions, then pour into a 4 quart slow cooker.
Layer ingredients, don't stir. Pour cake mix in first, then pudding, then sprinkle chocolate chips over the top.
Cover slow cooker.
Cook on high for 2 to 2.5 hours.

You'll know when it's ready because everyone in the house will be drooling and asking if it's done. The top of the "cake" will look fully cooked. When you lift the lid you'll be overwhelmed by the chocolately-goodness of the smell.

Do not wait for it to cool . . . consume immediately (as if you could wait). Just be careful not to burn the roof of your mouth.
