Rice Krispy Treats with Red Hots are one of our favorite treats to make and bring to pot lucks, events or holidays. They are simple to make and taste delicious.

The recipe we share will fill an 11-inch x 17-inch glass baking dish. It will make about 45 two inch square pieces.

Ingredients:

- ¼ Pound Butter (1 stick)
- 8 Cups Rice Krispies (or generic)
- 40 Large Marshmallows or (1) 10-ounce package
- ½ Cup Red Hots
- 11 x 17 Glass Baking Dish

Directions:

Spray non-stick spray on 11 x 17 baking dish.

Melt 1 stick of butter in an 8-quart sauce pot over a low heat.

Pour in marshmallows and stir until completely melted. If marshmallows are older and don't melt readily, add 1 tablespoon of water and stir. Turn off heat.

Gently fold in rice cereal and Red Hots until completely coated – be careful not to crush the cereal.

Pour mixture into your glass baking dish and using the butter wrapper, press the hot mixture into the pan.

Try to get an even thickness.

Let cool and cut into 2-inch squares.

Will make about 45 pieces.
