

Cherry Limeade/ Just Like Sonic Drive-in

If you've ever tasted Cherry Limeade from Sonic Drive-Ins, you're going to love this sweet and tart DIY recipe. It's easy to make and delicious to drink. We've been working on this recipe for years and years. In our mini citrus orchard, we have a Mexican lime tree with small yellow limes. They can be used for Key Lime Pie (this is really good) and some people use them when they drink Tequila – not something we like to do. We racked our brains trying to come up with a recipe that would use up a large number of the limes that this tree produced when we stumbled on the idea of replicating Sonic's Recipe with the copycat formula.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup Lime Juice
- 1 cup Sugar
- 2 Liters Cherry 7 Up
- 2 cups Cherry Juicy Juice

Directions:

Mix it all together and serve over ice—you can even add a twist of lemon or lime to make it look pretty. It's got a sweet and sour, delicious taste. If you don't like a lot of sugar in your drinks, you can back off of the sugar and add as much or as little as you like.
